My personal skills and qualities:

As an under-graduate I was awarded with the 'G H Slee Memorial Prize for Best Final Year Performance in Sport Development'; an academic award. As team captain, I led a team to raise £5000 for St Cuthbert's Care; the funds went to the Alan Shearer Centre. Organising and running several events such as race nights and sponsored runs meant that I needed to be self-motivated, responsible and able to work effectively in a team. Being a police cadet for 2 years taught me discipline, teamwork and communication. Through my practicum experiences and professional development conferences I am able to understand pupils and their individual needs, demonstrate practical teaching skills, develop differentiated, progressive lesson plans and understand the importance of safe and equitable practice.

My other interests and hobbies:

Eager to challenge myself, modelling provided opportunities to walk in London Fashion Week, to feature in Vogue and assist in the hospitality at the British Golf Masters. Being actively involved in a dynamic community, the Miss England sports round emphasised the importance of resilience, fellowship and being an innovator. In relation, sport has been an integral aspect of my life especially since joining Blaydon Harriers. My dedication and commitment to the club led to a place at the National Indoor Championships, a race at the Grand Prix and also in multiple harrier leagues. My interest in physical activity ranges from going on hikes, training in the gym and also becoming the champion of the Workweek Hustle in the Fitbit challenge.
