My personal skills and qualities:

I am a friendly person who is very approachable. I have strong communication skills and try to lead by example. I have acquired these skills through both playing sport and teaching. Multiple contrasting teaching placements have allowed me to trial various approaches to teaching and learning. I feel that to really prepare students for the future, my duty is to give them responsibilities and leadership roles to enable them to progress both their sports knowledge and their social skills. I am a motivated person who always goes the extra mile. I have consistently played Rugby for Middlesbrough RUFC first team and have been awarded Player of the Season twice over the last 4 seasons. I have also played Cricket for all Middlesbrough senior teams and most recently for Stokesley second team.

My other interests and hobbies:

My other interests include travelling; I have been lucky enough to spend 9 months in South Africa teaching and coaching. I also enjoy skiing, which has allowed me to travel all over Europe. I am always keen to work during my studies, which has led to a variety of jobs, including a chef at TGI Fridays, bar work at Fourteen Drops in Yarm and even a cleaner. Certainly being a chef, the 50% off staff food incentive, has had its benefits and also gave me some really valuable cooking skills that have helped me greatly during my time at university. Growing up I played the violin as part of an orchestra and was a grade 6 violinist; I played at the Sage in Gateshead.
