Will teach KS4 and 5 theory on second placementClear understanding of the Teaching Games for Understanding (TGfU) approach having taught this on my first placementThrough a range of supply work prior to starting my teacher training I very quickly learnt how to develop rapport with students in order to effectively manage behaviour. This is now a strength of my teaching

My personal skills and qualities:

I have a broad understanding and subject knowledge covering many aspects of the PE curriculum. I am passionate about my subject and this passion really developed when I studied BTEC Level 2 and 3 Sports Awards and achieved maximum marks. I thoroughly enjoyed conveying my knowledge in lessons, helping others to learn the practical and theoretical elements of the subject. I am a reflective practitioner which allows me to continuously analyse my own and others' performance to enhance development and minimise weaknesses, enabling me to strive to become an outstanding teacher and a positive role model. I successfully create positive relationships through my effective communication skills and approachable manner which succeeds in building effective rapport with students, enthusing them to learn and improve in a positive environment. I also work well with my colleagues and enjoy being part of a team. I pride myself on the high standards I set myself in terms of work ethic and organisation.

My other interests and hobbies:

I recreationally play Basketball with former teammates and Badminton with friends. My main pursuit is applying myself to anything I put my mind to in order to be the best I possibly can in all walks of life. Outside of sport, family is important to me and I spend as much time as I possibly can with them; this can be difficult with 18 cousins! Additionally, I have a passion for travelling during the summer holidays and most recently went inter-railing with friends across Europe, experiencing different cultures and broadening my outlook on life. I have future plans to follow in my father's footsteps and visit India.
