My personal skills and qualities:

Being the President of the Kickboxing Club while at University allowed me to develop my organisational and leadership skills. I am a confident and outgoing person who can build good relationships with my peers, colleagues and the students I teach through my personality. As a 'bubbly' person I can relate well to students and create a positive learning environment. My behaviour management is a strong feature of my teaching based on my drive to deliver interesting and engaging lessons.

My other interests and hobbies:

I am a huge advocate of the benefits of physical activity and regularly attend the gym as a means of keeping fit and healthy and maintaining a good work/life balance. I also enjoy hiking and running along the beach front, taking in the views. I love relaxing playing video games or watching movies.
