My personal skills and qualities:

My greatest strength is my ability to build strong, trusting and caring relationships with people whether they are three, 93 or somewhere in between. My greatest attributes are my honesty and authenticity. I am fortunate to have inherited a good sense of humour that runs in the family! I believe the best leaders put others before themselves and I aspire to do just that. I am confident my broad working background in retail, hospitality, care and instructing has made me into a well-rounded individual who has learned what a privilege it is to return to higher education at 26. I hope that the wisdom I have developed through experiencing and reflecting upon a wealth of opportunities will set me apart. I wish to harness my passion for sport, games and outdoor education to help build character in the students in my care, so they may grow to fulfil their potential and serve their friends, families and communities.

My other interests and hobbies:

Adventures to date include volunteering at the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games in Basketball (I shared the court with the late NBA legend Kobe Bryant, amongst others!). I spent a year working and living alongside an international community at Rydal Hall in the Lake District. I have backpacked through Thailand, Australia, Canada, the USA and China. I have volunteered on a hospital ship in Congo and Gran Canaria and been involved in a house building project in Mexico. I met my now wife, in the Scottish Borders as we worked as outdoor instructors. We currently live in a cosy 5th story flat overlooking industrial Teesside and North Yorkshire. We are dreaming of owning a house and a garden of our own one day, so I can build a bike workshop and Bekah can fill the rest of it with animals!
