My personal skills and qualities:

I am a bright, bubbly person who is hardworking and honest. I can cooperate with people well and am able to lead confidently. I develop rapport and relationships quickly with students and staff. I have exceptional time keeping, punctuality and planning skills which are key to being an exceptional practitioner. I am an enthusiastic person who has always aspired to be a PE teacher because I understand the importance of PE and the impact it can have on a young person's life.

My other interests and hobbies:

I am a keen netball player and competed at a high standard also playing for Team Northumbria in the Netball Performance League. During college, I gained a place on the British Colleges Team playing across the country with the other successful athletes. I enjoy socialising with my friends and family which even includes going for a rollerblade! I have a keen interest in recreational running and the outdoors.
