My personal skills and qualities:

I am an enthusiastic, outgoing person with excellent communication skills, able to engage with young people and colleagues effectively from a range of backgrounds. I have effective organisational skills and work well under pressure. I thrive in a team, while my participation in showjumping demonstrates my ability to work independently and examine my own performance.

My other interests and hobbies:

Horse riding is a passion and I enjoy walking with my dogs and exploring the countryside. I enjoy spending time with my friends and family, especially when we travel to new places. I'm also a police advocate for vehicle safety and dangerous driving. I visit different schools and provide a video presentation with Operation Dragoon from the police force to Sixth Form and Year 11 students to make them aware of the safety aspects when it comes to driving and being in a car with friends.
