My personal skills and qualities:

I am a hardworking individual and always give my all to everything I am involved in, I pride myself in being approachable and passionately committed to providing the best education and opportunities possible for all. My role at City of Newcastle Gymnastics Academy as a women's elite coach has allowed me to build up a range of skills and qualities including: planning sessions; communicating with parents; monitoring progress and experience teaching different ability groups. I have aspirations to inspire, encourage and support all students to achieve academic and personal excellence.

My other interests and hobbies:

I am a highly motivated and driven individual who has always had a passion for sport and physical education. I regularly coach women's artistic gymnastics to an elite level where I have gained experience in America, Portugal and London. I enjoy the outdoors where I regularly walk my dog along the Northumberland coastal route and occasionally the Lake District. I have participated in a few parkruns and plan to compete in the Great North Run 2024 and Race for Life 2024.

Preferred location:

North East and UAE
