My personal skills and qualities:
I am a reliable and responsible individual who has excellent organisational skills and a strong work ethic. I create engaging lessons using a range of delivery methods to suit the needs of pupils, and am enthusiastic and passionate about the importance of physical activity and sport in young people's development. I pride myself in forging strong relationships with students and colleagues and am keen to continue to improve my practice, readily seeking and acting on feedback. I am fair, consistent and assertive when needed, allowing me to build trust with students and set high expectations in my classrooms to create a purposeful learning environment.
My other interests and hobbies:
In my spare time I like to play golf. I like to keep myself fit by going to the gym, hill walking and playing 5 a side football in a local league. I enjoy watching local northern league football games with my next goal being to involve myself with some weekly football coaching at a local football club and start playing football for a local 11-a-side team. I enjoy spending time with my family, traveling around the country when time allows to support my younger sister who is a figure skater.
