My personal skills and qualities:
Throughout my life I have always been passionate and had a love of physical education and sports in general. I am self motivated and keen to learn and gain knowledge about new sports and skills and the most recent and effective pedagogies. I have played sports at a very high level and gained huge experiences from this opportunity, such as travelling to multiple countries and across the United Kingdom. I believe physical education has the ability to open doorways to young people and develop character in a way no other subject can. I always strive to be the best possible version of myself and push for what I believe in, being a positive role models to students in my care.
My other interests and hobbies:
I am very passionate about staying active when I am not playing football often enjoying running or working out at the gym. I enjoy travelling and visiting new places to walk my dog and enjoy relaxing this way. I take every opportunity to keep my social life active whether this is playing sports or spending time meeting friends and family.
